New York State Board of Elections statement regarding suspicious mail received

ALBANY, N.Y. (09/17/2024) This afternoon, the New York State Board of Elections received mail that contained a suspicious substance in what appears to be part of a pattern of potentially threatening mail being sent to elections offices across the country.

The State Board immediately contacted law enforcement and temporarily evacuated the area. Law enforcement's investigation into the incident is ongoing.

If you have any questions regarding this press release please contact Kathleen McGrath or Jennifer Wilson at the State Board of Elections at (518) 474-1953 or by email at INFO@elections.ny.gov.

For any questions about the investigation, please contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) directly.
