State Board of Elections to Host Campaign Finance Seminar

ALBANY, NY (04/25/2014) -- The New York State Board of Elections will host a campaign finance seminar in Albany on Friday, May 9, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

The seminar will include a presentation on campaign financial disclosure requirements as defined in New York State Election Law. Conducted by NYSBOE's Campaign Finance Unit, this seminar is designed to assist candidates and committees in understanding the law and the disclosure process. Members of the media and the public are welcome. Copies of the 2014 Campaign Finance Handbook will be provided to attendees.

The information for the seminar is as follows:

Albany - Friday, May 9, 2014

9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Albany County Office Building

Cahill Room

112 State Street

Albany, NY 12207

The seminar, which is free-of-charge, is held in partnership with the Albany County Board of Elections. Those interested in attending a seminar should register on the NYSBOE website at www.elections.ny.gov or by calling 1-800-458-3453.
